Data is forwarded to third parties within the framework of the completion of the award procedure, contract performance and the fulfilment of the contractual and pre-contractual rights and obligations to the respective agent commissioned by the Max-Planck-Gesellschaft for support and/or in connection with the provision of the service (for example - not conclusively: attorneys, consultancy firms, other business partners involved in the provision of the service, planners or specialist planners) and to the respective examination authorities as part of the examination procedure.

5. Duration of storage

The data is deleted as soon as it is no longer required for the purpose of its processing and no statutory retention periods or those arising from the funding and/or support relationship exist. This is usually ten years following the expiry of the business relationship. Within the scope of checking against sanctions lists, the respective legal periods are observed.

The data is required on conclusion of the contract and for the purpose of implementing the award procedure, contract performance and the fulfilment the contractual and pre-contractual rights and obligations. This not feasible without the provision of data.
