MaxPlanckResearch reports on research currently being conducted at the Max Planck Institutes and is aimed at a wide audience with an interest in science. The editors endeavor to make complex scientific content as comprehensible as possible. Four editions of the magazine are published in German each year, all of which are translated into English (MaxPlanckResearch). At present, the German version has a circulation of 82,000 copies (MaxPlanckResearch: 10,000 copies). It is free of charge. Reprint of texts is permitted only with the prior approval of the publisher. Photographic rights may be granted by agreement. None of the views and opinions expressed in MaxPlanckResearch may be interpreted as representing the official views of the Max Planck Society and its associated bodies.

The Max-Planck-Gesellschaft zur Förderung der Wissenschaften e.V. (Max Planck Society) comprises 86 institutes and research facilities where around 23,900 employees, including some 6,900 employed scientists, work and conduct research. The annual budget for 2020 was EUR 1.92 billion. Research activities of the Max Planck Institutes focus on basic research in natural sciences and the humanities. The Max Planck Society is a non-profit organization registered under private law as an incorporated association. Its central decision-making body is the Senate, with members from the world of politics, the scientific community, and the professional public, providing for a well-balanced partnership.

MaxPlanckResearch is printed using FSC®-certified and other controlled materials.
