DEMOCRACY IS AT STAKE

1. CONTROLLING THE MEDIA
   - Closing media operations considered disagreeable
   - Controlling, cutting resources for, and politically reorienting public radio

2. INTERVENING IN THE CONTENTS OF CURRICULA, SCHOOLBOOKS, TEST REGULATIONS, AND DOCTORAL REGULATIONS
   - Politically motivated guidelines for awarding scholarships and grants
   - Biased funding for museums, films, and theaters

3. PENALTIES AND PREVENTION BASED ON POLITICAL CRITERIA
   - Expanding the responsibilities of security authorities
   - Creating institutions for spying and denunciation
